Rules of Procedure for Shareholders' Meetings

Article 1: Unless otherwise specified by law or the Articles of Incorporation, the Company shall process its shareholders' meetings according to the terms of these Rules.

Article 2: Any change in the manner of convening a shareholders' meeting shall be resolved by the Board of Directors, and any such change shall be made no later than mailing of the shareholders meeting notice.

The Company shall specify in its shareholders' meeting notices the time during which attendance registrations for shareholders, solicitors and proxies (hereinafter referred to as "shareholders") will be accepted, the place to register for attendance, and other matters for attention.

The foregoing time during which attendance registrations for shareholders will be accepted shall be at least 30 minutes prior to the commencement of the meeting. The place of attendance registration shall be clearly marked, and adequate and appropriate personnel shall be assigned to handle the registrations. Shareholders participating in a video shareholders' meeting should register on dedicated platform at least 30 minutes prior to the commencement of the meeting. Shareholders who have completed the registration are considered to be present in person at the shareholders' meeting.

In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, the Company shall upload the meeting agenda book, annual report, and other pertinent materials to the dedicated platform at least 30 minutes prior to the commencement of the meeting and continue to disclose them until the end of the meeting.

Article 3: Shareholders or proxies present may turn in their attendance cards to sign in, who will be recognized as present. The Company is not responsible for the recognition of attendance.

Article 4: The total attendance and vote shall be calculated based on shares. The number of shares present is calculated based on the number of shares reported on the sign-in card and the video conference platform, plus the number of shares for which voting rights are exercised by written or electronic means.

If shareholders propose to count the attendance, the chairperson may not proceed. In the resolution, if the attendance has reached the statutory quota, the proposal is considered approved.

When the government or a juristic person is a shareholder, it may be represented by more than one representative at a shareholders meeting. Where there is an election of directors or supervisors, the number of representatives assigned by a corporate shareholder shall be limited to the number of directors to be elected in the current shareholders' meeting.

When a juristic person is authorized to attend the shareholders' meeting, only one representative shall be appointed by the juristic person.

Article 5: The venue of shareholders' meeting shall be at the Company or a convenient and suitable location. The shareholders' meeting shall be held during 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. When holding a virtual shareholders' meeting, the Company is not subject to the foregoing restrictions on the venue.

Article 6: If a shareholders' meeting is convened by the board, the chairman of the board shall be the chairman presiding at the meeting. If the chairman of the board is on leave or cannot perform his duties for some reason, the chairman shall designate one director to act on his behalf. If the chairman has not appointed a proxy, the meeting chair shall be elected from among the directors present.

If the meeting is convened by any other person besides the board of directors who is entitled to convene the meeting, such person shall be the chairman to preside at the meeting. If there are more than two persons convening the meeting, then shall be the one elected by the other.

Article 7: The chairman shall call the meeting to order at the appointed meeting time and announce related information including the number of shares without voting rights and the number of shares in attendance at the same time.

However, when the attending shareholders do not represent a majority of the total number of issued shares, the chairman may announce a postponement, provided that no more than two such postponements, for a combined total of no more than one hour, may be made. If attending shareholders represent less than one-third of the total number of issued shares after two postponements, the chairman shall declare the meeting adjourned. In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, the Company shall announce the adjournment of the meeting on the video conference platform. However, if the attending shareholders represent one third or more of the total number of issued shares, a tentative resolution may be adopted pursuant to Article 175, Paragraph 1 of the Company Act; all shareholders shall be notified of the tentative resolution and another shareholders meeting shall be convened within one month; In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, shareholders who wish to attend by video shall re-register with the Company..

If before the end of the meeting and at enough shares become present to constitute a quorum, the chairman may then re-submit the tentative resolutions to the meeting for approval, in accordance with Article 174 of the Company Act.

Article 8: The agenda for the shareholders' meetings shall be set by the Board of Directors if the meeting is convened by the Board of Directors. The meeting shall be conducted in accordance with the agenda, which may not be altered without a resolution adopted at the shareholders' meeting.

The preceding provisions of this Article apply mutatis mutandis to cases where shareholders' meetings are convened by any person(s), other than the Board of Directors, entitled to convene the meeting.

Unless otherwise resolved at the shareholders' meeting, the chairman may not announce adjournment of the meeting unless the scheduled agenda items (including Questions and Motions) set forth in the preceding provisions of this Article are concluded, or in case of disorder of other matters that make the meeting hard to proceed normally. If the chairman announces adjournment of the meeting and violates these rules of procedure, the meeting may be continued after electing one of the attendees to be the meeting chairman in accordance to the approval of the majority of the votes represented by the attending shareholders.

After the meeting is adjourned, shareholders may not separately elect a chair and resume the meeting at the original or another venue.

Article 9: Before speaking, shareholders attending the meeting must fill out a speaker's card , specifying therein the major points of his or her speech, account number (or number appeared on attendance pass) and account name. The chairman shall determine sequence of shareholders' speeches.

A shareholder in attendance who submits a speaker's slip but does not speak shall be deemed to have not spoken. In the case where the contents of a shareholder's speech differ from those specified on the speaker's card, the contents of the actual speech shall prevail.

When shareholders' authorization is limited by proxies in the power of attorney or through other methods, proxies' speech or votes shall prevail, regardless of the Company's awareness.

Article 10: A shareholder may not speak more than twice on the same resolution without the chairman's consent, with five minutes maximum for each speech.

The chairman may stop any shareholder who violates the above rules or exceeds the scope of the agenda item.

Unless otherwise permitted by the chairman and speaking shareholder, no shareholder shall interrupt the speech of the speaking shareholder; the chairman shall stop any such interruptions.

When corporate shareholders appoint two or more representatives to attend the shareholders' meeting, only one representative has the right to speak for the same proposal.

Shareholders not obeying the chairman regarding the situations mentioned in preceding three paragraphs shall be handled in accordance with Paragraph 4 of Article 18.

In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, shareholders participating by video may ask questions by text on the video conference platform after the chairman announces the commencement of the meeting and before the meeting is adjourned. The maximum number of questions for each motion is two, and each question is limited to 200 words. The Paragraph 1 to 4 and Paragraph 1 to 2 of Article 9 shall not apply.

Article 11: The chairman may respond or designate other persons to respond after an attending shareholder's speech.

Article 12: Discussions or votes shall be carried out only for proposals. When the chairman considers that the discussion for a motion has reached the extent for making a resolution, he may announce discontinuance of the discussion and submit the motion for resolution. For such motions which are announced by the chairman to be determined by votes, ballots may be casted for several motions at the same time but shall be voted separately.

Article 13: Unless otherwise specified in the Company Act and the Articles of Incorporation, resolutions shall be adopted by a majority of the votes represented by the attending shareholders.

The persons for supervising the casting of votes and the counting thereof for resolutions shall be designated by the chairman, provided, however, that the person supervising the casting of votes shall be a shareholder.

The vote counting process of the voting and election shall be announced at the venue of the meeting once completed, including the weights. And the result of the vote counting process shall be recorded.

If there is an amendment or replacement proposal to the original proposal, the chairman shall decide the sequence of voting for such proposals, provided that if any one of the proposals has been approved, other matters shall be deemed vetoed and no further voting is required.

In the event that the Company convenes a virtual shareholders' meeting, shareholders participating by video shall vote on each motion and election motion through the video conference platform after the chairman announces the commencement of the meeting, and shall complete the voting before the chairman announces the close of the voting. After this period, the shareholders shall be deemed to have abstained from voting.

In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, the votes shall be count at once after the chairman announces the end of the voting, announce the voting and election results, and disclose them on the video conference platform of the shareholders' meeting.

Article 14: Shareholders of the Company have one vote per share, except for those limited to vote or having no vote in accordance with Paragraph 2, Article 179 of Company Act.

According to Article 177-1 of Company Act, shareholders exercising their votes through ballots or electronic votes are deemed present in the shareholders' meeting. However, such shareholders shall waive their votes for questions and motions and the amendments or alternatives of the original proposals in the shareholders' meeting.

Article 15: In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, when declaring the meeting open, the chairman shall also declare, unless under a circumstance where a meeting is not required to be postponed to or reconvened at another time under Article 44-20, paragraph 4 of the Regulations Governing the Administration of Shareholder Services of Public Companies, if the virtual meeting platform or participation in the virtual meeting is obstructed due to natural disasters, accidents or other force majeure events before the chair has announced the meeting adjourned, and the obstruction continues for more than 30 minutes, the meeting shall be postponed to or reconvened on another date within five days, in which case Article 182 of the Company Act shall not apply.

In the event of a postponed or reconvened meeting as described above, shareholders who have not registered to participate in the original shareholders' meeting by video may not participate in the postponed or reconvened meeting.

In the event of a postponed or reconvened meeting in accordance with the provisions of the first paragraph, if shareholders who have registered to attend the original shareholders' meeting by video and have completed registration for the meeting do not attend the postponed or reconvened meeting, the number of their shares present and the voting and election rights they exercised at the original shareholders' meeting shall be included in the total number of shares, voting rights and election rights of the shareholders present at the postponed or reconvened meeting.

When a postponed or reconvened shareholders' meeting is held in accordance with the provisions of the first paragraph, it is not required to re-discuss and resolve on motions for which voting and counting of votes have been completed and the voting results or the names of the directors elected have been announced.

When the Company convenes a hybrid shareholders' meeting and the reconvened video conference cannot be conducted as described in the first paragraph, if the total number of shares present reaches the statutory quota for the shareholders' meeting after the number of shares present at the shareholders' meeting by video is deducted, the shareholders' meeting shall be continued without any postponement or reconvention as provided in the first paragraph.

In the event that a meeting shall be continued as described in the preceding paragraph, the number of shares represented by shareholders participating in the shareholders' meeting by video shall be included in the total number of shares of shareholders present. However, the shareholders shall be deemed to have abstained from voting in all motions of the shareholders' meeting.

Article 16: The Company may appoint designated attorneys, certified public accounts or other relevant persons to attend shareholders' meetings.

Article 17: The Company shall continuously and uninterruptedly record and videotape the entire process of shareholders' check-in, meeting, and vote counting from the time the Company receives shareholders' registration.

The preceding audio-visual data shall be kept for at least one year.

The litigations brought by shareholders in accordance with Article 189 of Company Act shall be recorded until closed.

In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, the Company shall keep records of the shareholders' registration, enrollment, check-in, questions and voting and the Company's vote counting results, and shall continuously and uninterruptedly record and videotape the entire video conference.

The Company shall keep the aforementioned information and audio and video recordings safe throughout the life of the Company, and shall give the audio and video recordings to the person entrusted with the video conference for retention.

No virtual shareholders' meeting is open to anyone who is not a shareholder for participation or observation. Shareholders participating by video shall not distribute or forward the URL of the live link, or record or videotape the Company's live shareholders' meeting by machine or screen recording software to protect the rights of the participants.

Article 18: The staff members who take charge of the shareholders' meeting affairs shall wear identification certificates or armbands.

The chairman may direct disciplinary officers or security personnel to maintain the order of the Meeting. For identification purposes, they shall wear a badge bearing the words of “disciplinary officer.”

If a public-address system is available at the venue, the chairman may stop the shareholder’s speech using equipment outside the Company’s setting. Persons that violate the Rules or interfere with the procedures of the shareholders’ meeting and disobey the chairman’s correction will be asked by disciplinary officers or security personnel to leave the venue.

Article 19: During the process of the meeting, the chairman may announce a recess at an appropriate time. In case of irresistible circumstances, the chairman may suspend the shareholders’ meeting and announce the time of continuance of the meeting. If the shareholders’ meeting cannot be held at the venue before the scheduled procedures (including Questions and Motions) of the meeting agenda are ended, the shareholders’ meeting may be proceeded at another venue. The shareholders' meeting may be postponed for not more than, or reconvened within, five days by resolution in accordance with Article 182 of the Company Act.

Article 20: These Rules and procedures shall be effective after ratification at the shareholders’ meetings. The same applies to modifications.
